Introduction

It is the intent of this work to hold narrative to a minimum and allow the documents (certificates, Photos, articles, etc.) to speak for themselves. Hence the paper size will be maintained at a minimum of 8.5 x 11.

The superscripts on the names indicate the generation; i.e. Lucius¹ indicates first generation and Charles⁴ would indicate fourth generation.

Since many of the 5th generation are still living only the names and possibly the marriages will be mentioned. 6th generation and on will not be covered in order to protect from identity theft. If the person is expired than dates will be added.

Let there be no doubt that there are descendants that are undiscovered and unnamed to date.

Preface

Lucius Howe is mentioned in the Howe's Genealogies buy the Honorable Daniel Waite Howe.

Maps of the Farm

1856 map showing Lucius Howe Farm

1891 map showing Lucius Howe Farm. Note "Tract 5"

Lucius ran the farm and at some point in time allowed his son Orville to manage the farm and he, Lucius, moved to Third Street and Stow ave. Lucius continued in the real estate business as a broker and accrued several properties throughout Cuyahoga Falls as mentioned in his will.

During the Civil War Lucius Howe was a Peace Democrat that opposed the war. They were known as Copperheads. Their symbol was made from the large penny by cutting the Liberty Head out of the penny and making a pin for lapel. Hence the name copperhead. According to the press report Lucius was beaten up by some veterans for speaking to them in opposition to the war. See news clipping below.

Patriotic Demonstration at Cuyahoga Falls.

We learn that a number of furloughed veterans, at Cuyahoga Falls, deemed it advisable to test the loyalty of certain gentlemen of the butternut persuasion, on Thursday last, by requiring them to take the oath of allegiance, all of whom, we believe, acceded to the arrangement. Subsequently a question arising as to what one of the gentlemen—Mr. Lucius Howe—had previously said in reference to the soldiers and the war, a difficulty occurred, in which, we understand, Mr. H. was severely handled. We are not fully advised in reference to the affair, but would again caution our young soldier friends against using undue severity in matters of this kind. There is, justly, a strong aversion, on the part of the people of Ohio, particularly in this portion of the State, to any thing like mobocracy, and it is far better that a dozen of the most malignant copperheads, should be permitted to eject their now harmless venom, "without let or hindrance," than that the fair fame of our brave soldiers, and the good repute of our County and State should suffer by acts of violence and bloodshed. Powerless for evil, the rebel sympathizers of Ohio, should now only be treated with the scorn and contempt which their pusillanimity and disloyalty so richly merits.

Lucius Howe's Accident. The two articles below describe the accident and subsequent death of Lucius Howe.

Lucius Howe's Misfortune.

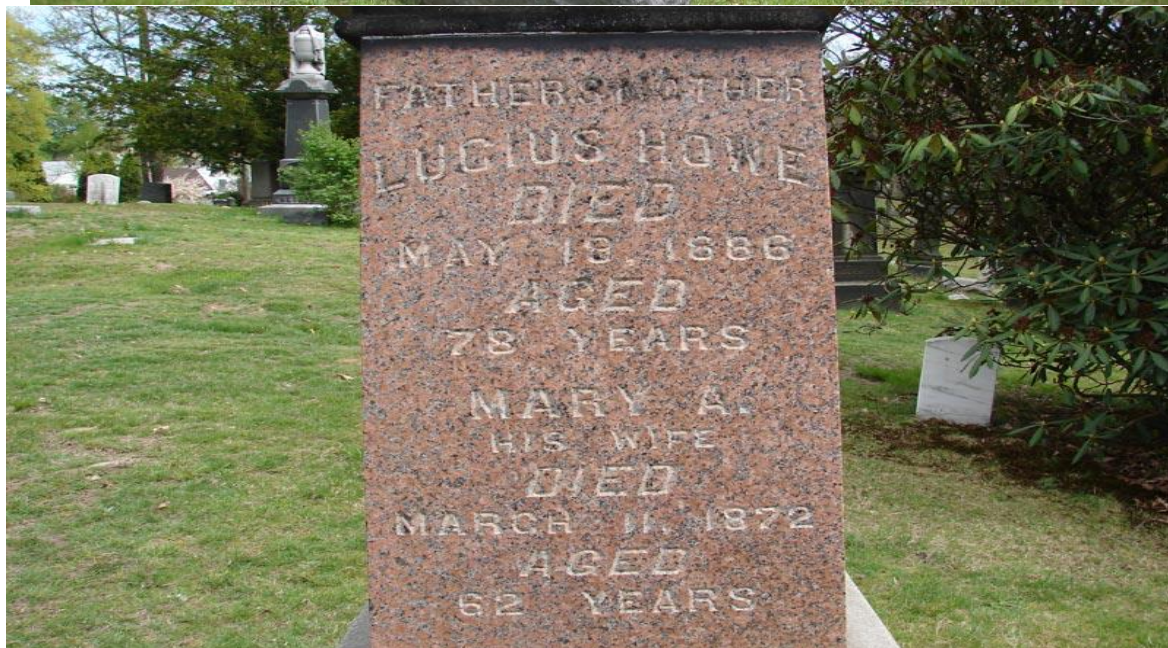

A serious accident befell Lucius Howe this morning while walking along Front street. The awning of H. Plum's shoe store was being arranged, when, by some mismanagement, the iron rod supporting it was dropped; it fell heavily striking Mr. Howe upon the side of his head and producing concussion of the brain. He was taken up, insensible, and carried into the shoe store, where Drs. Heath and Bill attended him. As soon as possible, he was conveyed to his home where he soon regained consciousness, but could recollect nothing of the accident. The fall was a severe shock to his system, and one he will probably feel the effects of for some time.

Death of Lucius Howe.

Last week The Reporter described the accident to L. Howe, in which he was stricken down by the falling of the iron framework of an awning. Since then he has hovered between life and death, with at one time a slight prospect of recovery, but later he manifested strong indications of pneumonia, followed by his death yesterday forenoon.

The deceased was born in Canaan, Conn., in 1808, removed to Ohio in 1833, and has resided in town about 16 years. He leaves two sons and a daughter, Mrs. Callahan.

Lucius Howe's Last Will and Testament

The following was transcribed from the original handwritten document by Donald Allen Howe on May 7, 1998 and edited by James R. Howe on May 19, 1998.

In the name of the benevolent Father of all.

I Lucius Howe of Cuyahoga Falls, Summit County, Ohio, being of sound and disposing mind and memory and wishing to dispose of my worldly effects, do make declare and publish this my last will and testament.

Item 1st. I give and devise to my son Orville Howe the farm on which he now resides, situated partly in Tallmadge and partly in Cuyahoga Falls Townships and which contains ninety one (91) acres during his natural life to use and enjoy the issue.

Item 2nd. I give and devise to the children of my said son Orville Howe, by him begotten or that may be begotten by him in lawful wedlock, the remainder in fee in said farm described in "Item 1st", in which I have herein devised a life estate to my said son Orville Howe to them and their heirs and assigns in fee forever share and share alike.

Item 3rd. I give and devise to my daughter Ellen Callahan the homestead property on which I now reside it known as lots No. fourteen (14) and fifteen (15) in block "E" and which is situated on the south side of Stow in the Village of Cuyahoga Falls Summit County Ohio to use and enjoy the same during the term of her natural life.

Item 4th. I give and devise to the child or children of my said daughter Ellen Callahan, born in lawful wedlock the remainder in fee after the death of my said daughter Ellen Callahan, of the property described in Item three to them and their heirs or assigns forever.

Item 5th. I give and devise all the residue of my property, whether real, personal or mixed not herein before disposed of to my said daughter Ellen Callahan and my son Minor Howe share and share alike to be theirs and their heirs forever.

Item 6th. I hereby appoint Ellen Callahan executor of this my last will and testament.

In testimony where of I here unto set my hand and seal this 2nd day of December 1885.

Signed and sealed in the presence of the undersigned by the said Lucius Howe who.... wife's will.... the rest is unreadable and so its contents are unknown.

The will is signed by Lucius Howe.

Observations:

In item 1 Lucius clearly defines that the farm is 91 acres and that it is located partly in Tallmadge and partly in Cuyahoga Falls Townships. (This farm is shown in the map of 1891. He also clearly states that his son Orville Howe is now residing on that farm. Next Lucius states that he gives this farm to his son Orville to use and enjoy for his natural life.

In item 2 Lucius gives to the children of Orville the remainder in “fee” of the farm described in item 1. To share and share alike and assign in “fee” forever. Lucius then states that he has devised a “Life Estate” for his son Orville.

In item 3 Lucius uses similar language to give lots 14 & 15, located on the south side of Stow Ave. in Cuyahoga Falls, to his daughter Ellen Callahan to use and enjoy for her natural life. (These lots 14 & 15 are on the south side of Stow Ave. and are clearly shown on the map of 1891 and are located directly across the street from where Aunt Ruth’s house was.)

In item 4 Lucius again gives the remainder in fee after Ellen’s death to her children. (WE know of one child named George.)

In item 5 he gives all the rest of his estate to his daughter Ellen and his son Minor.

In item 6 he appoints his daughter Ellen as executrix of the will.

The will was witnessed by Thomas Walsh, who was also apparently the attorney of record.

Probate notes:

The probate of the estate of Lucius Howe was signed by M.H. Howe, Ellen Callahan, and Orville Howe. It reveals that Lucius had personal property valued at $20,000.00. Debts were listed but were unreadable. Ellen Callahan refused to be the executrix of Lucius’ will and she named Thomas F. Walsh as the executor and administrator which was approved by the court. Thomas F. Walsh was bonded for $40,000.00 to act in this capacity. It can be noted that whenever Thomas Walsh wrote Minor Howe’s name he spelled it as Minor not Miner. The probate made no mention of real estate value.

Ellen Julia Howe Callahan's Last will and Testament

The Will of Ellen Callahan (Howe) Transcribed from the original document by Donald Allen Howe on 5/11/98 and edited on 5/28/98 by James R. Howe because the original was in handwriting and difficult to read.

When we examine the will of Ellen Callahan, daughter of Lucius Howe. We are immediately persuaded that she was a woman of some means.

I Ellen Callahan of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and wishing to dispose of my worldly effects do make and publish this my last will and testament.

1st It is my wish that all my just and legal debts and funeral expenses be paid and discharged.

2nd I will devise and bequeath to my brother Orville Howe and his wife Julany, if they survive me, a life estate in the following described real estates. Situated in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, and known as Lots one (1) and two (2) Block "E" known as the B----- property; In owning this undivided $\frac{1}{2}$ interest in common therein.

3rd Also, Lots No. 18 in Block "G" and Lots No. 23 & 25 in Block "H", and situated on the North side of Stow Street. At the death of said Orville and Julany Howe, if they or either survive me, and at my death, if I survive them, then the real estate above described shall pass to and rest in the children of my said brother Orville Howe. I wish Lucius, Mary, Ida, Charlie, Jennie, Minor and Mattie to share and share alike, and if at my death any of said children shall have died, and left children, then such children shall take their Fathers and Mothers interest, as the case may be, but in case there are no children then such interest shall rest in the Brothers & sisters of the deceased.

It is my intention to give and devise the above real estate to the children of my brother Orville, subject only to the use of both my brother Orville and his wife Julany and the same is to devise and bequeath to them their heirs and assigns forever.

4th I will and bequeath to my beloved son George Callahan such of my personal clothing as he may desire and one feather bed, the remainder of any personal clothing and remaining dishes I bequeath to the four daughters of my brother Orville named Mary, Ida, Jennie and Mattie or any of them that may be living at my death to be divided equally between them and if they are unable to make an equable division the same shall be made by my executor.

5th I will and bequeath to my son George, my gold watch & chain, to use during his life and at his death to pass to, rest and become the property of his eldest child if he has any. If not to pass to and rest in the eldest living child of my brother Orville.

6th I will devise and bequeath the homestead upon which I now reside, being known as Lot No. 14 and 15 in block "E", Cuyahoga Falls, O. together with other property of every kind and nature, personal or mixed including household effects, notes, money and credits that I may have possessed of at the time of my death, to Miner H. Howe and Thos. F. Walsh in trust for my said son George during the period of his natural life and the same shall then pass to and rest in the children of my said son George begotten by him in lawful wedlock their heirs and assigns forever. But in case there are no children of my said son George, then the property above devised to said brother shall pass to and rest in the children of my said brother Orville their heirs and assigns forever, share and share alike.

It is my wish that my said son should at all times occupy the homestead, occupied by me and him, such further use of my property and the earnings and interest thereof, and in such amounts, manner and at such times as in the judgment of the above trustees may be best, wise and proper, considering the habits, ways, mode of living of my son George and his industry, sobriety and ability to have and manage.

It is not my wish that my son should at any time want, and to have confidence in the trustee above named, carrying out my wishes, but I want the property so that it cannot be lost, squandered or destroyed or marked by any creditors of my said son, and I give and grant to said trustees the right to sell, buy or invest my said property in such way or manner as in their judgment may be wise and proper for the purposes herein set forth, and required that before making any important loans, sale or purchase, that they consult with the Probate Judge of Summit County concerning same.

I appoint Thos. F. Walsh executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness where of, I have hereunto set my hand and seal to this my last will and testament this 8th day of January 1891.

There is a small section of writing that occupies the lower section of the will. Some of it is unreadable and so it's contents unknown. What can be deciphered indicates that some article or item was to pass on to Bertha daughter of Mary Milward if Ellen's son George had no children. Mary is the daughter of Orville Howe.

The will is signed by Ellen Callahan.

Observations:

In item 2 Ellen creates a life estate for her brother Orville Howe and his wife Julany in lots 1 and 2 of block E and known as the B---- property. This life estate is to be held by Orville and Julany as an undivided 1/2 interest in common. Or Ellen is trying to say that she only owns an undivided 1/2 interest in common. The map of 1891 clearly shows lots 1 & 2 belonging to J H Somers.

In item 3 she creates another life estate for Orville and Julany in lots 18 of block G, lots 23 and 25, of block H and situated on the North side of Stow Ave. in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. She specifically states that upon the death of Orville and Julany Howe the properties shall pass to their children and if any of them are dead it shall pass to the children of those who are dead. The 1891 map shows lot 23 belonging to J.H. Insande and lots 18 and 25 owned by E Callahan.

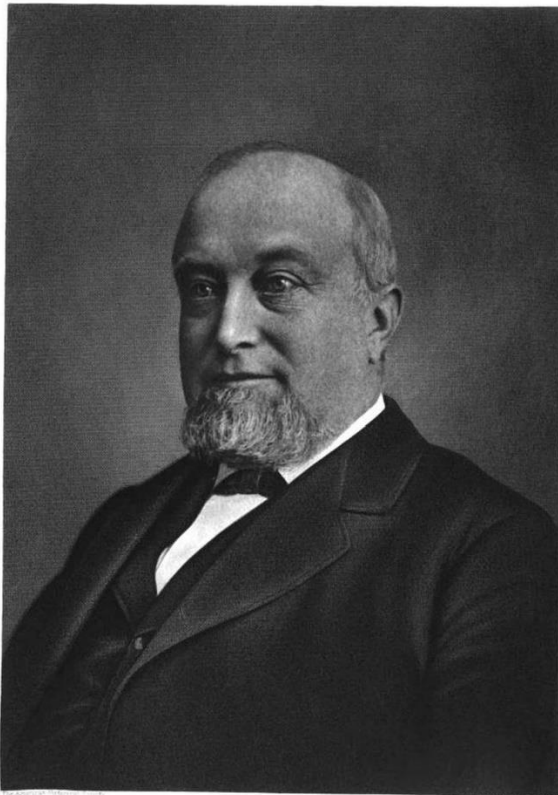

In Item 4 Ellen provides for her son to have her gold watch and chain and creates a trust in lots 14 and 15 in block E as well as all her property. The trustees are her brother Minor H. Howe and her Attorney Thomas F. Walsh.

She then appoints Thomas F. Walsh as the executor of her will and gives some instructions to the trustee's on carrying out her wishes.

Probate notes:

The probate record of Ellen Callahan confirms Thomas F Walsh as the executor and teamed with Minor H. Howe as trustees. There were debts totaling some $1700.00 and also some uncollected assets. These uncollected assets were debts owed to Ellen but were deemed uncollectable do to the loss and expense to the estate to collect. G. Callahan signed the accounting record as being satisfied.

Obituary for Minor Horace Howe

MINOR HOWE IS DEAD.

Death of Retired Business Man and Pioneer of Summit-co
Occurred at His Home Sunday Morning.

MINOR H. HOWE.

The death of Minor H. Howe, retired business man of the city, occurred Sunday morning at his home, 575 East Highland-ay. His death was caused by Bright's disease. Mr. Howe was a pioneer of Summit-co. He was born on a farm near Cuyahoga Falls and was 70 years old. Eighteen years of his life were spent in Cuyahoga Falls, where he was interested in the rolling mill at the time of its construction. He was a member of the Cuyahoga Falls Lodge, No. 1, and had been a member of the Cuyahoga Falls Lodge, No. 1, for many years.

retired life. At the time of the failure of the Akron Savings bank he was a director of that bank. He had accumulated much property. He is survived by his wife.

He spent a part of the winter in Florida. A few weeks ago his condition became so alarming that he desired to hasten home. "If I must die," said he, "I want to be at home when it comes."

The funeral will be held from the church at 2 p. m. Thursday and will be conducted by the Methodist society.

DEATH OF MINER H. HOWE.

Ill for several months, Miner Horace Howe, well known throughout Summit county, died Sunday morning at his home at 578 East Buchtel avenue, Akron, at 6:40 o'clock, of paralysis and Bright's disease. Early in the winter, he made a trip south in search of health, but upon arriving at his destination he was found to be in worse condition than at first supposed, and he hastily returned to the north, since which time he has been gradually failing. For quite a number of days past he had been in a semi-conscious condition.

Mr. Howe was born in Tallmadge township, less than two miles from Cuyahoga Falls, February 8, 1836, thus being aged seventy years, one month and ten days. His early education was obtained in the public schools here, after which he secured an interest in the wholesale grocery concern of Bissman & Co., at Mansfield, traveling for several years. After sixteen years residence in Mansfield he returned to the Falls, and two years later engaged in the flour and milling business, becoming interested also with C. M. Walsh in other lines, including the Falls Hollow Staybolt Co. plant, which business is still most successfully conducted by Mr. Walsh, who purchased Mr. Howe's interests some six years since, since which period the latter had been a resident of Akron. Mr. Howe's first wife was Miss Diantha Wilcox of Wadsworth, whose demise occurred in 1873. In 1874, he was wedded to Mrs. Eliza Lowrey, who, with two children by a previous marriage, survives him. These are Fred Lowrey of Mansfield and Mrs. F. S. Ozier, also of that city.

Mr. Howe also resided in California for some years and was at one time on a stage route in the Golden State. He was also at one period of his life an employe of the Hanford paper mill here.

The funeral services took place at Akron Tuesday afternoon, being held at the residence and conducted by Rev. A. R. Custer of Grace M. E. Church. The remains were brought here and interred in Oakwood cemetery. The entire services were largely attended.

Mr. Howe was well known throughout this county and was considered as one of her prominent citizens. He was a director and large stockholder of the Akron Savings Bank, now defunct, and was interested in various other connections. He was eminently successful, and leaves many warm friends.

The departed was a member of Star Masonic Lodge, which members attended the services at the grave.

The funeral cortege reached the cemetery here about 4:30 o'clock. Here the services were in charge of Worshipful R. R. Peebles and Star Masonic Lodge.

The pall bearers were A. I. Lewis, F. D. Vogan, Smith D. Tift, of Cuyahoga Falls, I. S. Myers, F. H. Pones and William Snyder, of Akron. The floral tributes were numerous and the entire services largely attended.

The deceased, besides the wife and step sons mentioned leaves one brother, Orville Howe, of the Falls.

MINER H. HOWE IS DEAD AT HIS HOME HERE

Well Known and Highly Respected Citizen Passed Away Sunday.

Miner Horace Howe, one of Summit county's best known and prominent citizens, died at his home at 578 East Buchtel avenue Sunday morning at 6:40 o'clock.

Bright's disease, with which he suffered patiently for over six months, was the cause of death. Mr. Howe was past 70 years of age, having been born on a farm about a mile and a half south of Cuyahoga Falls on February 8, 1836. He was educated in the common schools of Cuyahoga Falls and when a young man went to Mansfield, where he became a partner in the wholesale grocery house of Bissman & Co., for which concern he traveled for a number of years. After residing in Mansfield for 15 or 18 years he returned to Cuyahoga Falls about 14 years ago and engaged in the flouring and milling business. He was also interested with C. M.

He was also interested with C. M. Walsh in the Hollow Staybolt company. About six years ago Mr. Howe sold his interests in Cuyahoga Falls and came to Akron to make his home. He lived a comparatively retired life after coming to this city. He was a stockholder and a director of the Akron Savings bank, which failed about two years ago. Mr. Howe was married twice. His first wife was Diantha Wilcox of Wadsworth, who died in 1873. He then married Mrs. Eliza Lowrey at Marion, O., in 1874, who survives. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, being a member of Star lodge, F. and A. M., at Cuyahoga Falls. He was a man of sterling purpose and character and was well liked and highly respected by his acquaintances. Besides his bereaved wife he is survived by two step-children, Mrs. F. S. Ozier and George H. Lowrey of Mansfield. Funeral services will be held at the residence Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. R. Custer of Grace M. E. church will officiate. Burial will be in Oakwood cemetery at Cuyahoga Falls.

WILL OF MINOR H. HOWE

Makes Bequests to Widow's Children, Residents of Mansfield.

The will of the late Minor H. Howe was filed in the probate court late Saturday afternoon and was probated shortly after it was filed.

The will provides that his brother-Orrville Howe, shall receive out of his estate, $5,000. To George H. Lowrey, of Mansfield, son of his wife, is bequeathed $10,000, and to Hattie Ozier, daughter of his wife, wife of Fred S. Ozier, of Mansfield, is bequeathed the Brown farm, consisting of 330 acres of land and located in Northampton township. To Sarah Dawson, niece of his wife, is bequeathed $5,000.

The balance of the estate, real, personal and mixed, is bequeathed to the wife of the deceased, to be hers forever.

Mrs. Howe, the widow, and Fred S. Ozier are named in the will as executors to serve without bond. The will was drafted July 5, 1904. After the will was probated the court appointed E. S. Day, I. S. Myers and C. P. McCready as appraisers to appraise the estate.—Akron Beacon Journal.

At the death of Mr. Howe the announcement was made in dispatches from Akron that he had lost practically all of his fortune of $100,000 in the failure of the Akron Savings bank two years ago, and that three days before his death his attorneys made an arrangement by which the bulk of his remaining property was turned over to the receivers to satisfy bank claims, but Howe never knew it, as he had been stricken with paralysis the same night he authorized his attorney to make the settlement.

A discrepancy exists between this statement and one made in an Akron paper of Feb. 26 to the effect that "Mr. Howe left a fortune of $150,000 even after the results of some business reverses have been deducted."

This article seems to indicate that Minor Howe left $150,000 even after the loss of $100,000 from the bank failure.

The Last will and Testament of Minor H. Howe

Item 4th: I give , devise and bequeath to Hattie Ozier, daughter of my wife, what is known as the Brown farm in the township of Northampton County of Summit and state of Ohio, and containing about three hundred and thirty (330) acres of land more fully described in the deeds to me Volume and 251 & 271, pages 510 & 264, Summit County Records, to which deeds reference is hereby made for a more full description, to have and to hold herself, her heirs and assigns forever.

Item 5th: I give, devise and bequeath to Sarah Dawson, niece of my wife, the sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars.

Item 6th: I give, devise and bequeath to my wife Eliza J. Howe, all the residue of my estate of every description, real, personal and mixed, to have and to hold to herself, her heirs and assigns forever.

Item 7th: I hereby nominate and appoint my said wife, Eliza J. Howe, and Fred Ozier husband of said Hattie Ozier executors of my last will, and with full power to handle, adjust, invest or re-invest and to sell and disperse of any and all my property as they may deem best, except such as is specifically bequeathed herein, and to do any and all things that they may deem necessary or expedient in the settlement of my affairs and of said estate; and I desire that no sale of my personal estate be made except as my said executor may deem best and that said executor, be not required to give bond, I having full confidence in them that they will fully carry out the terms of said trust.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand to this my last will and testament at Akron, Ohio, this 5th day of July, AD 1904.

The forgoing instrument was signed and acknowledged by the said Miner H. Howe as his last will and testament in our presence and was by us signed in his presence at his request the day and year last above written.

The will is signed Miner H. Howe. It cannot be determined if it is his own hand writing. Also, the signatures of witnesses J. H. Adams, Orlando Wilcox and Olive Ward.

There is a letter to the court to admit this will to probate. It has not been transcribed. Also no actual probate notes have been found.

Observations:

For our purposes Minor gives his brother Orville $5000.00 period. The will is devoid of any trust or life estates. It makes no mention of his 1/2 interest in the Trusteeship created by his sister Ellen to take care of George.

Howe Hotel

No narrative on Minor Horace Howe would be complete without some mention of the Howe Hotel that was built on S. Main Street in Akron, Summit, Ohio. See the articles below. Please note that the hotel was named for Howe as he was the property owner of the land that his wife Eliza leased to her son-in-law to build the hotel. It was Eliza's insistence that got it named for her late husband.

NEW SKYSCRAPER ON S. MAIN WILL BE READY SOON

Hotel Howe to be Name of New Place Ozier & Lowrey Are Building.

Steel work on the new Ozier and Lowrey block, being built on South Main street near Market, is nearing completion. The steel work will be up within a week and then general construction work will be started with a vim.

"We hope to have the new block completed by the first of August," said Mr. Ozier.

This new block is to be 11 stories high and will be absolutely fire-proof. It will have a frontage of 66 feet, a depth of 117 feet. Terra cotta trimmings will be used on the front of the block.

This new building, the tallest in the city, and the first of the skyscrapers to follow, will be used as a hotel. It will have 116 rooms with private baths. There will be two business rooms on the ground floor and also the office. There will also be writing rooms, a ladies' parlor and a splendid lobby. A water tank with a capacity of 5,000 gallons, will be built on top of the block.

The new hotel will be known as Hotel Howe, in honor of the late Minor Howe. The hotel is being built by Messrs. F. S. Ozier and George Lowrey.

Woman For Whom Howe Hotel Was Named, Is Dead

Mrs. Eliza J. Howe, Old Resident,
Dies At Fred Ozier
Home

Mrs. Eliza J. Howe, one of the old residents of the city and for whom the Howe hotel was named, died Monday night of apoplexy at the home of her son-in-law, Fred S. Ozier, 1025 W. Market st.

Mrs. Howe would have been 87 years old in February. She was born in Stowe township where she lived until 25 years ago when she removed to Akron. She was married twice. Her first husband was E. M. Lowrey who served as an officer in the Civil war. He was killed during an engagement. Her second husband was Minor H. Howe, who owned the property on which the Howe hotel now stands. After his death Mrs. Howe was especially active in promoting the building of the hotel and for her it was appropriately named.

She has been active in religious work during her life time and was a member of Grace Methodist church.

Mrs. Howe is survived by two children, a daughter, Mrs. Fred S. Ozier and a son, George H. Lowrey.

Orville Leaves the Farm

Orville and Julany remained on the farm until Julany took ill. They left the farm and resided on Third street in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. The Cuyahoga Falls city directory of 1899 and 1900 shows Orville and Julany A. residing on third street.

Julany died in 1901 leaving Orville alone on third street. The printed story of the Howe reunion says Orville was still on Third Street in 1904.

Orville died in 1913 and was living on Third street, Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio at the time.

So Orville had left the farm about 14 years before his death which begs the question who lived on the farm between 1899 and 1913. Its possible that when Orville and Julany left the farm a deal was reach that allowed J W Walsh to take possession. We have shown that the tax map of 1910 shows J W Walsh (John) ownership. The Cuyahoga Falls City directory shows John W. Walsh on Maine St. and that he is a Farmer.

At this point in time the exact mechanism that gave John Walsh ownership of the farm is unknown. But it is known that Orville's Father Lucius Howe and his Sister Ellen Callahan left him only life estates in the properties. It was their intention that the farm and all of the other properties would eventually belong to Orville's children. Ellen's will stated as much.

In 1906 Minor Horace Howe died and bequeathed his brother Orville $5,000.

John W. Walsh was a business partner along with his brother Cornelius Walsh with Minor Horace Howe when they formed the corporation "HOWE & Company" and operated 3 businesses together.

Cornelius bought out Minor Horace Howe sometime in 1900 and later bought out his brother John Walsh.

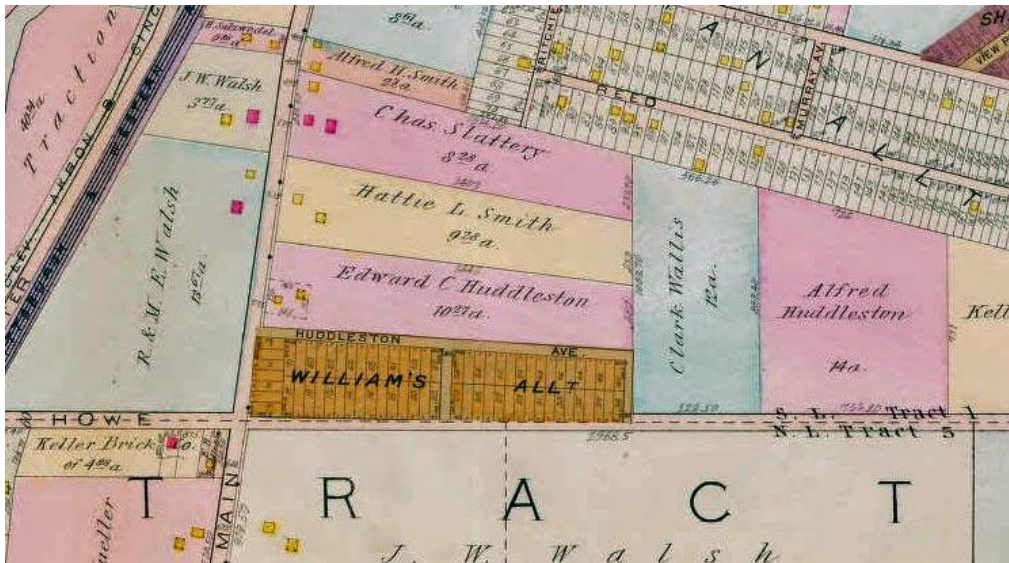

Thomas Walsh (1858-1937) was born in Cuyahoga Falls and credited with building the Akron & Cuyahoga Falls Rapid Transit Company, an electric railway that ran from Barberton to Kent beginning in 1895.

John W. Walsh then opened a Traction Company (trolley Cars) and at some point during John's ownership of the farm the "old mountain Line" (trolley car), out of Akron, ran through the farm.

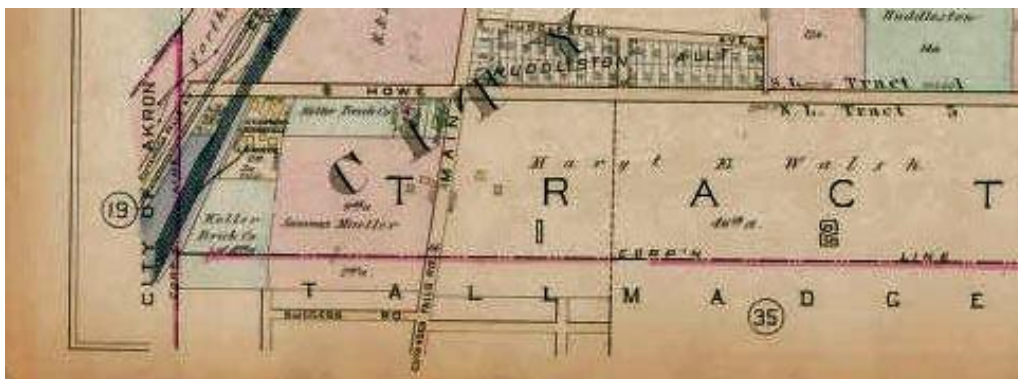

The 1910 census shows Orville Howe living on Third street with Henry and Mary Howe Robinson and having his own income.

Per cousin Helen Grant, Orville was a house builder. She said he built the house that his son lived in on one of the properties that Lucius Howe bequeathed to his Daughter Ellen Callahan. The one that Charles O. Howe was born in, and the one that became Ruth Howe's house. Cousin Helen said he built other homes as well.

The farm eventually was merged with surrounding properties and developed into a Country Club and then as a shopping strip on Howe Avenue in Cuyahoga Falls, Summit, Ohio.

CUYAHOGA FALLS NEWS

HOWE FAMILY REUNION IS HELD

Pioneer of Cuyahoga Falls
Present at Gathering of His Relatives.

(Special to Beacon Journal.)

Cuyahoga Falls, June 22.—One of the most charming social events of the season was the Howe family reunion which was held on Sunday last at the home of Mrs. Robinson on Third street. The oldest member of the Howe family present was Orville Howe, who makes his home with his son-in-law, Mr. Robinson.

Mr. Howe is one of the old pioneers of Cuyahoga Falls and has always lived here. He has seven children, three of whom reside in the Falls. Mr. Howe is 67 years old and although at present retired, formerly owned and managed a large farm between Bettes' Corners and the Falls, which was known as the Howe homestead. He is a staunch Republican, and a very popular citizen. The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Scott Edgar and family of Montrose, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Marble of Cleveland; Miss Fellenbaum and Mr. and Mrs.

Charles Howe of Richfield; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Robinson of Richfield, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Robinson of Denver, Col., father and mother of the host.

Although the formal reunion was held Sunday, that day only marked the close of a season of festivities, as Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have been entertaining guests for the entire week preceding the reunion. This event was one of the most happy occasions and hospitable entertainments ever held in the Falls.

Death of Orville Howe crushed between two trolley cars.

DIES ON WAY TO HOSPITAL

Orville Howe, Cuyahoga
Falls, Crushed Between Two Cars.

Breathed His Last Before
Ambulance Reached the City Hospital.

Orville Howe, aged 75 years, of Cuyahoga Falls, died on the way to the hospital at noon today from internal injuries sustained when he was caught between two cars at the corner of Mill and Main streets.

Mr. Howe had just alighted from a Cuyahoga Falls car on Mill street. Instead of getting off on the south side of the car, as usual, he stepped off on the north side. Just as he did this a Ravenna car came up on the parallel track and, before he could escape, he was crushed between the cars.

The motorman on the Ravenna car tried to stop when he saw the man between the cars, but it was too late. He was rolled over several times before the car could be stopped.

He was picked up unconscious and the Billow ambulance was summoned and started to the hospital with the injured man. He breathed his last, however, before the hospital was reached, and was taken to the Billow morgue, where the remains were prepared for burial. His body was crushed almost to a pulp, but no bones were broken.

Oakwood Cemetery letter confirming location of Orville and Julany Howe.

Jim

Shawn and I met today at Oakwood. We have come to the conclusion that Orville & Julany Howe are the most likely people to be buried at the Father & Mother headstones in Section A.

I'm going to change the computer records and make a note in the old card catalog regarding this change. If you would like the info for your records, this is what I have:

Lot 575

- 1 Charles Ives
- 2 Augustus Ives
- 3 Minor Howe
- 4 Minnie Howe
- 5 (Mother stone) Julany Howe
- 6 (Father stone) Orrville Howe

I'm attaching a picture of the map. Although 1 and 2 extend into lot 574, the map could be incorrect as there's only one grave shown there and in the records - for Martha Booth. It seems too large of an area to only have one grave and since it really doesn't hurt anything to add them in, it makes sense.

One of the reasons why Julany isn't even listed as an "unknown" is somehow there are missing years in the old records - from about 1898 thru about 1903 I believe. I have no idea why - they left blank pages when they started the lists up again as if maybe they were going to go back and add those years in. Orrville is listed with his information as being buried in 1913, but for whatever reason, no burial locations were given for many years. No wonder why we have so many unknown burials!

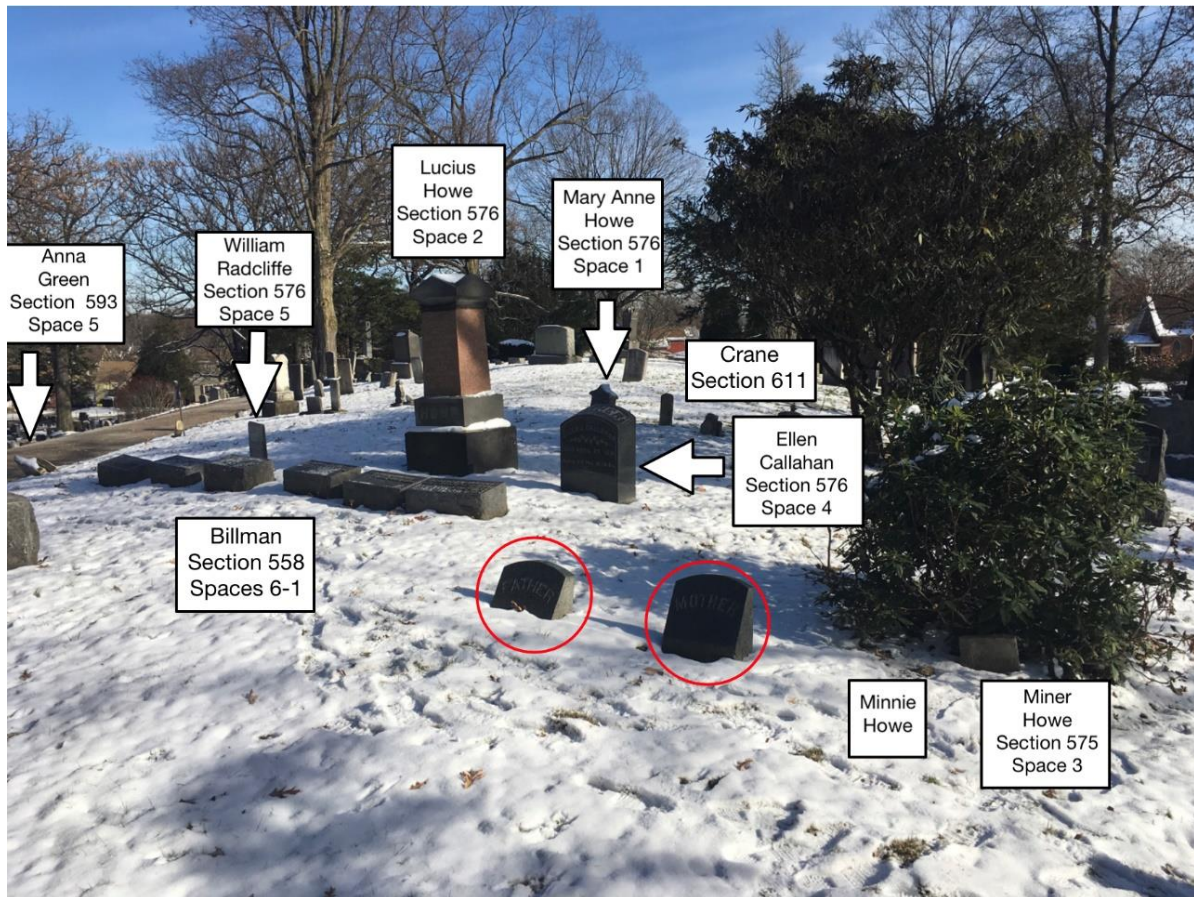

But at least now I think we can be pretty sure that Orrville and Julany are correctly identified as to where they are buried.

Many thanks to Shawn for all her detective work!

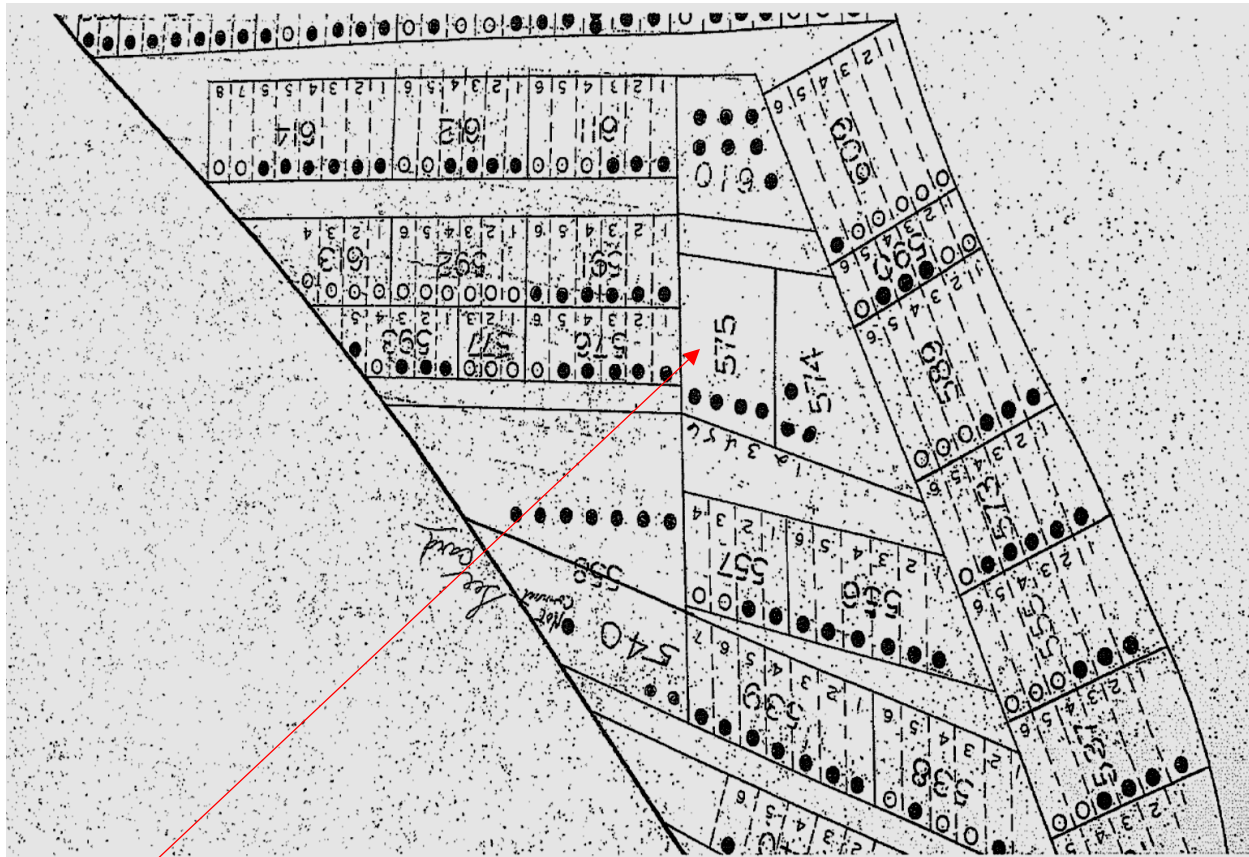

Sorry for all of this taking so long.

Letter from Sherrie Northrop sent to Donald A. Howe

12/25/99 Received new information via e-mail from Sherrie Northrup who lives in the state of Washington. Sherrie Northrup's great-grandfather is Lucius Heman Howe, son of Orville Howe and Julany Holcomb. Sherrie has provided several photos and priceless information regarding the family of Lucius Heman Howe. The following is from Sherrie's e-mail:

"My great-grandfather was Lucius Heman Howe, son of Orville, who married Cora Smith from Summit County Ohio on Oct.7, 1888 in Lincoln County Washington. I am pretty sure about the date because I travelled there and found the old marriage registry. This corresponds to your site #157. My research has it that he raised 5 sons and 4 daughters but it may not be totally correct. He lived near Colville, WA (actually in Ferry County, Wa) and is in the 1920 census there which listed him as 57 years old with parents from Ohio. He was postmaster for a time in the Ferry County region. He later moved to Marysville, Wa (near Seattle) and he and Cora are both buried in the Marysville cemetery.

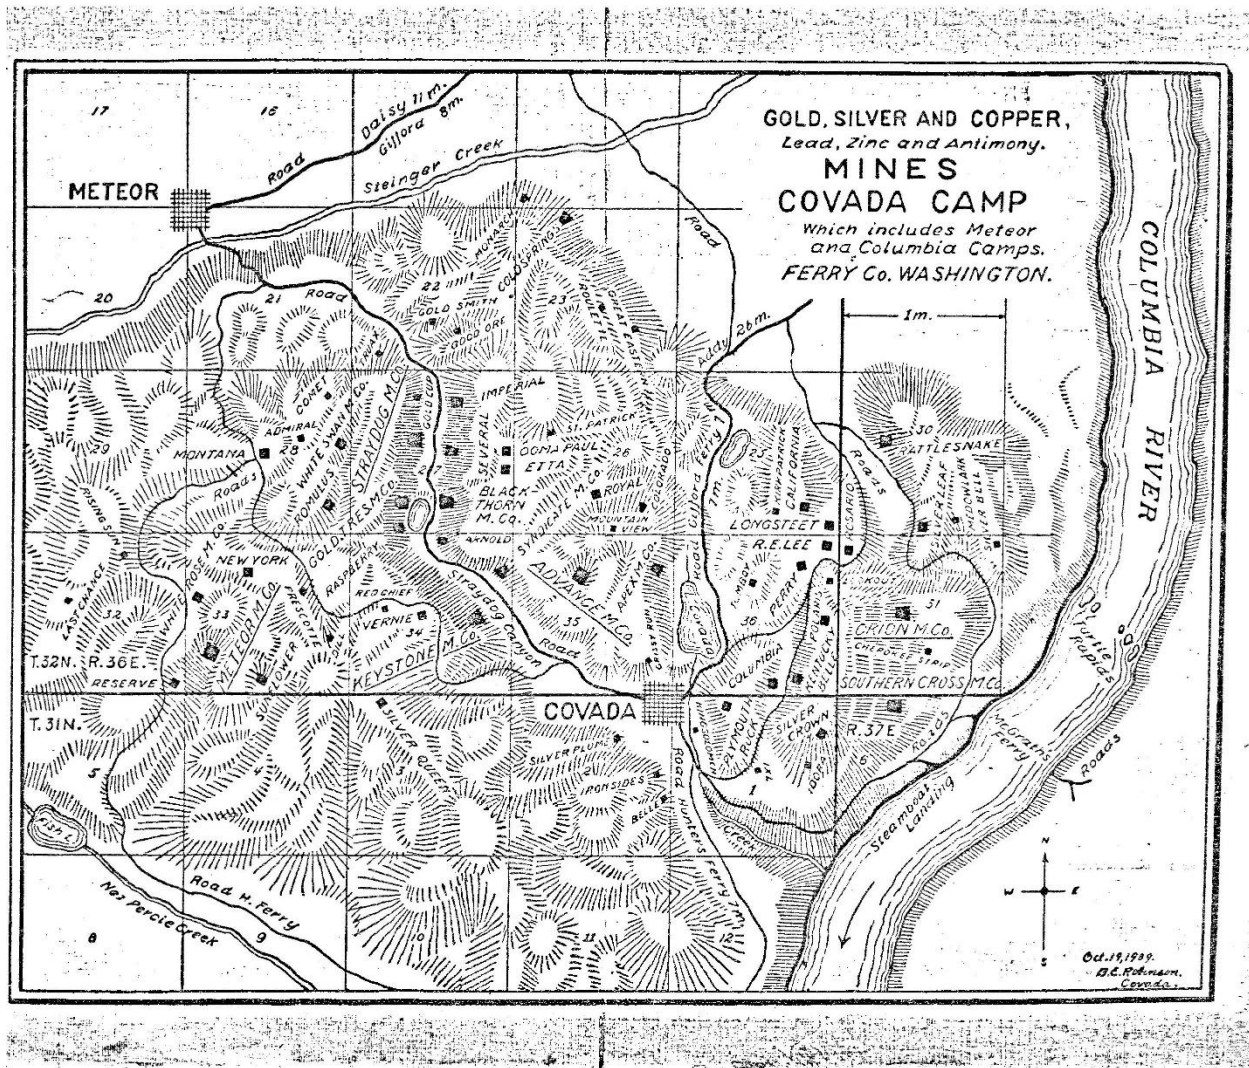

One of his sons, Frank Edward, who married Mary Cleo Will was my grandfather. He died while operating a small horse logging company around 1935 on the North Fork of the Coeur d'Alene River of a massive heart attack at age 48 and is buried in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. He had 3 sons and a daughter. Sons: Albert (WW2 veteran and hard drinker) one son Richard (history unknown). Albert died in the 1980's in Spokane, Wa. Son 2 was Harold (WW2veteran) who had 3 children: daughter Betty (died 1999 Silverton, Or, daughter Mary Ann who currently resides in Smelterville, Idaho and son Edward who lives in Post Falls Idaho. Harold died in his fifties from heart problems in the 1980's. Son 3 (my father) was Kenneth Gordon (WW2 veteran) who had 1 son and 2 daughters. Son Gary died in 1965 following pulmonary embolism after back surgery at age 24, daughter Patricia (born 1947) lives in Raymond, Wa, and myself (born 1953) and living in Pasco, Wa.

Our father Kenneth died in 1970 at age 48 from massive heart attack (same age as his own father Frank when he died from his MI). Harold was a logger and Kenneth was a logger/carpenter. Albert worked as a truck driver. The daughter of Frank was named Frances and she died at age 24. She had 2 sons--Frank Leaf (sawmill supervisor) who died around 1997 in Boardman, Oregon and Ernest H. Leaf who lives in Pacifica, Ca and is a travel agent. Here is a quick history of Lucius and Cora that is about all I have--

They had the following children: Frank Edward, Nellie (married Tom Miller), Charlie (children: Ruby LaRue, LeRoy, Bea Positewaite, Elmer, Nellie Sticklemeyer, Elwood, Gladys Hunstucker), George (children: Doris, Vera and Richard), Flora (married an Elliot and had Lloyd and daughter Dorothy Burlingame), Cora (married Elmer Swanson), Louie (unknown), Betty (unknown), and son Orville who died at age 14 and is buried near Hunters, Wa."

When Lucius Heman Howe arrived at Covada, Washington he sent back this map showing the Gold and Silver mines in the area. The family tradition is that he went there to mine silver but that may not have happened.

Family Of 6 Flees Flames

Aroused from sleep by a neighbor, a North Akron family of six escaped early today from their burning home.

Firemen and neighbors, working together, managed to rescue most of the family's clothing and furniture before fire almost destroyed the home in the rear of 782 Dan st., Assistant Chief Charles Ellet said.

The family was sleeping soundly at about 6 a. m., when the neighbor banged on the door and yelled, "Your house is on fire." The occupants, Charles Howe, his wife, Dortha, and their four children, jumped from bed and dashed out into the drizzling rain.

Firemen saved clothing enough to warm the shivering family. Neighbors said Howe, his wife, and children—David 7, Harry 6, James 4 and Ralph 1—had taken temporary refuge at a relative's home in Cuyahoga Falls today. Ellet said the blaze of undetermined origin caused damage amounting to about $2,000.
